THE INDIANA DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.]

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., January 8.—The State Convention of the Indiana Democracy, which assembled to-day, was the finest and most imposing body ever assembled in the State. The call of counties was made and responses received from every and all in the State. Although the hall and gallery were crowded almost to suffocation, the utmost good order prevailed.

On motion, Hon. W. E. Niblack, of Knox, was chosen temporary chairman of the Convention.

Mr. Reeves, from the Committee on Resolutions, reported the following platform:

Resolved, That language is inadequate to express our abhorrence and condemnation of the Radical reconstruction policy of Congress—a policy condemned by every consideration of justice and constitutional obligation; a policy fraught with the most alarming apprehension of evil to ten States of the Union, and destruction to the Union itself; a policy that largely increases taxation; a policy that requires a large standing army, which adds nearly $100,000,000 annually to the expenses of the Government, while it beggars the people; a policy the avowed object of which is to continue in power the most venal and corrupt political party that ever dishonored any civilization; a policy vindictively enacted and mercilessly prosecuted, with the unconstitutional purpose of centralizing and perpetuating all the political power of the Government in the dominant Radical party in Congress; and a policy which, if not early arrested by the American people, will, sooner or later, overwhelm our National Government in one common and appalling ruin.

Resolved, That we demand the unconditional repeal of any act of Congress conferring exclusive rights and privileges upon any class or classes of citizens at the expense of other classes.

Resolved, That the National Bank system, organized in the interest of the bondholders, ought to be abolished and United States notes substituted in lieu of the National Bank currency, thus saving to the people in interest alone more than $18,000,000 annually; and, until such system of banks shall be abolished, we [redacted] revenue only.

Resolved, That the monstrous expenses of the republican leaders in the administration of the government at all times and in all places, has been profligate to an extent unexampled in history; and for the hundreds of millions of dollars expended by them since the close of the war they have nothing to show save military despotism, oppression, usurped power and a mutilated Constitution; that the burthen of taxation, too grievous to be borne, demands their removal from all places of trust, and a thorough course of retrenchment and reform.

Resolved, That we are opposed to conferring the right of suffrage upon the negro, and we deny the right of the general government to interfere with the question of suffrage in any of the States of the Union.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the United States to protect all citizens, whether native or naturalized, in every right, at home and abroad, without regard to the pretended claim of foreign nations to perpetual allegiance.

Resolved, That the attempt to regulate the moral ideas of the people by legislation is unwise and despotic, and we are opposed to that class of legislation which seeks to prohibit the people from the enjoyment of all proper appetites and amusements.

Resolved, That we shall ever hold in sacred recollection the dead who freely sacrificed their lives in the defence of our once glorious Union, that the present and future generations might enjoy the rich inheritance of a form of government that secures equality of rights and privileges to all the citizens thereof; that the nation owes to the surviving soldiers and sailors of the Union the highest mark of praise and gratitude for the great sacrifices they made in the late war, and to those disabled in the service of the Union, and the widows and orphan children of those who fell in battle or died of wounds, or in the military service of the Union, such aid as will enable them to enjoy the substantial necessaries of life.

Resolved, That we recognize in the measures of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, a policy which would have given peace and prosperity to the States and dispelled the dark clouds caused by the vindictive measures of a Radical Congress. The adoption of the President's policy would, in our opinion, have saved the nation the expense of untold millions of treasure, lessened the burthens of taxation, and given peace to the South and prosperity to the Union.

Resolved, That Maj. Gen. Hancock, by his orders at New Orleans reinstating civil law and dethroning military despotism, has manifested the highest respect for constitutional liberty, for which he deserves the commendation of all friends of constitutional government. Like the great and good Washington, this gallant soldier had learned to respect the civil rights of all good citizens, and declare that in time of peace military tribunals should have no place in our jurisprudence. Eternal honor to the soldier who refused to rise above the laws.

Resolved, That we congratulate the Democracy of our sister State of Ohio on the gallant political campaign closed on the 8th day of October, 1867—a campaign marked by the highest order of devotion, ability and effort, and that in prominent and close association in the minds of our fellow-citizens of Indiana, stands the name of Hon. Geo. H Pendleton as identified with the vital measures upon which our party enters the canvass for 1868, together with his ability as a statesman and his high personal qualities. All these entitle him to the commendation of this convention as a true and consistent Democrat, and one who has our entire confidence and preference.

The last resolution was received with deafening applause.

FOREIGN ITEMS.

—It is proposed to establish a "temperance hospital" in London, "where the sick may be cured without the aid of alcohol drinks."

—Editorial dignity can hardly be very highly regarded in Ontario. For thrashing an editor in Guelph, a man was fined two dollars and a half.

—The Russians don't go out in cold weather without a slight coating of glycerine on their noses, ears, and other exposed points, to preserve them from freezing.

—An exact report has at last been published of the number of Garibaldians buried at Mentana and Monte Rotundo. Just six hundred and forty-two of the red shirted invaders have been put under the sod in just thirty-five graves.

—Mr. Chalmers has submitted to the War Department a plan for improving the Gibraltar shields, which, he believes, will add 100 per cent. to their strength, and only £100 per shield to their cost. The plan is, says the Army and Navy Gazette, to bring the 5½ inch plate 10 inches forward, and put between it and the second, or 5 inch plate, a compound backing similar to that of the Chalmers target, only, in the present case, a concrete of broken cast-iron and asphalte would take the place of the timber in the backing. If these shields, now, we fear, utterly useless, can be utilized by an additional expenditure of 10 per cent., it would, besides saving £35,000 of the public money, redeem our engineering prestige from the effects of a stupid blunder.—English paper.

—Bishop Quintard, of Tennessee, recently administered the rite of confirmation for the Archbishop of York, the first time such a service was ever performed in England by an American Bishop. Bishop Quintard is having great success in raising funds to endow the University of the South. It seems to be taking the form of a testimonial of brotherly feeling from England to the people of the Southern States.

Important Decision in an Express Case.

In January, 1866, Edward H. Buckland & Co., of Springfield, Mass., delivered a case of pistols valued at $442, to the Adams Express Company, to be sent to a firm in Vicksburg. While on the way the pistols were lost by the blowing up of a Mississippi steamer. Claim was made for their value, but refused on the ground that the receipt given exonerated the company from dangers from river navigation and steam. The Superior Court decided that the company was a common carrier, and for the plaintiffs. The defendants appealed to the Supreme Court of Massachusetts, which has sustained the decision and made declaration in fact that express companies are common carriers, and are responsible for the safety of goods which they are paid to transport.

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY AND THE MONEY-SPECULATORS.

The following remarks, from the New York Herald, are full of force, and he who will ponder upon them may without much difficulty foresee what must inevitably be the end and result of the present reckless management of the finances and currency of the country:

Mr. McCulloch and the money speculators are all the time gambling with the funds which the country needs, and thus withholding them from the legitimate channels of trade. The Secretary keeps locked up in the Treasury constantly two hundred millions and upwards, reckoning the gold at currency value; for what other purpose than gambling operations, or to help the money gamblers of this city and the National Banks, no one can conceive. The revenue invariably comes in as fast or faster than the demands upon the Treasury for it. If the whole two hundred millions or thereabout were used to-morrow in buying up the debt, and the Treasury left empty, there would be a surplus again within a month. Why, then, is this vast sum kept in the vaults and out of circulation? It is worth twelve to sixteen millions a year in interest, and that amount would be saved to the country by applying it to the purchase of the interest-bearing debt. Why should these twelve to sixteen millions a year be lost to the people of the country? Mr. McCulloch has not had skill enough to bring down the premium on gold by keeping an immense reserve. On the contrary, it has gone up, in spite of his hundred millions of gold reserve. But if he had succeeded in this there would be no reason to hold fifty, sixty or seventy millions of currency in reserve. Such miserable financial mismanagement serves only the national bank speculators and the money speculators of Wall street, while it robs the Government of the interest on two hundred millions and prevents the circulation of this money in the channels of trade.

The Secretary of the Treasury is doing just the same as the bankers and other speculators in money are doing. He belongs to that class, and has no ideas of finance above theirs. They hold immense sums of money, which also is needed by the country for legitimate business, for no other purpose than gambling. Millions upon millions are used for this daily and hourly, without yielding anything or producing any other result than to nominally fill Mr. Smith's pocket and to empty Mr. Jones' to-day, and to empty Mr. Smith's and fill Mr Jones' to-morrow. This gambling produces no wealth and only keeps up an everlasting see-saw of ups and downs among the money gamblers themselves. It is not a whit better than gambling at the faro-table, and is equally demoralizing to the individuals engaged in it. But the greatest evil is withholding the vast sum thus used from the proper channels of trade. There is plenty of money in the country, but there is great need of it throughout the localities removed from money centers. Had we twice as much it would be useless for purposes of production and trade in general as long as the banks and other money speculators and gamblers should hold it for the same object they do now. There is not a particle of difference between the conduct of Mr. McCulloch and that of these money gamblers. They are both demoralizing the country and ruining its best interests. They are both checking production and trade while there are abundant means to stimulate and increase them. Such a violation of every sound principle of finance and business can only end disastrously.

WHY THE SOUTH IS BEING BRUTALIZED BY NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

The New York Times tells us, in the following article, for what purpose the negroes of the South are invested with political power. The motive is, if possible, more infamous than legislation:

THE RADICALS AND THE PRESIDENCY.

We cannot object to the World's quoting from our columns what it finds there in support of the position that, in their action on the subject of reconstruction, the leading Republicans have been largely influenced by the desire so to arrange for the readmission of the Southern States as would secure the election of a Republican President. But it has no right to parade it before the public as a "confession." It is nothing of the kind. We have not been in any sense, or to any extent, a party to the project—nor do we know anything more of it than anybody equally watchful of events can know just as well.

In all the Congressional debates on this subject the leading advocates of the Radical policy based their support of it on the ground that in order to keep the Government in the hands of the Union men, it was absolutely necessary to admit the negroes to vote, and to exclude as many of the whites as possible. This was the grand argument used in favor of universal negro suffrage, and in support of what is known as the Shellabarger disfranchising amendment to the Reconstruction bill. Mr. Stevens more than once made this declaration in the House, and scouted the idea of requiring qualifications for suffrage, or of admitting rebels to vote, as certain to throw the Government into the hands of rebels and Copperheads. It was assumed, in debate and in all their acts, by the Radical Party, that the Union would be safe only in loyal hands,—and that it was the duty, as well as the right, of the Republicans in Congress so to shape their legislative measures as to promote and secure that result. Their principal objection to the admission of the Southern States on the basis laid down by Mr. Lincoln and adopted by Mr. Johnston, was that their votes would be given to the Democratic Party. Their hostility to their readmission on any other basis than that of universal negro suffrage, was based on the fact that without the negro vote they could not be secured for the Republican candidate. And even then,—when that had been decreed,—some of the boldest and most active of the leaders insisted that this was not enough—that the whites outnumbered the blacks in nearly all the Southern States, and that without a large disfranchisement of the former, the vote of the state for the Republican Party could not be considered safe. These are familiar to all who were at all conversant with the movement of the day, and are not likely to be questioned by the parties concerned. That other reasons for their action were put forward, and were more or less influential, is perfectly true; but this consideration, that the measures proposed were necessary to the continued ascendancy of the Republican Party, animated and controlled them all.

WE find the following awards as premiums on tobacco in the Courier of the 9th:

It will be remembered that Messrs. Fatman & Co. offered large premiums to the farmers who sold them their crops of tobacco last season. Mr Wm. Jessup handed us for republication the following lists of awards made:

"$100 premium for best quality and handling of five or more hogsheads, awarded to T. J. Owen, Christian county.

"$50 premium for the best handled and most perfect ordered crop of five or more hogsheads, without reference to quality, awarded to Paul Carter, of Christian county.

"$30 premium for 2d best handled and most perfect ordered crop of five or more hogsheads, without reference to quality, awarded to J. Waddell, of Todd county.

"$50 premium for the crop of the best quality and handling, of less than five hogsheads, awarded to Ben. Dower, of Todd county.

"$30 premium for the best handled and most perfect ordered crop of less than five hogsheads, without reference to quality, awarded to J. Lucas, of R. Trigg county.

"$20 premium for the 2d best handled and most perfect ordered crop of less than five hogsheads, without reference to quality, awarded to J. R. Crue, of Trigg county."

THE Charleston News has the following interesting items for Farmers and Planters: "The discovery of the bone earth or natural phosphates in South Carolina, seems about to create quite a revolution in the manufacture of fertilizers, and Northern companies are already anxious to secure consignments of the precious meterial. Several shipments have been already made, and applications for agencies and letters asking information are received daily. At present the earth is shipped in its crude state, but the company design soon to commence operation and prepare a fertilizer that will be found superior to most of those now in use.

"During the past year over $500,000 worth of fertilizers were sold in this city between January and May, and it is estimated that this amount will be more than doubled during the present season. Our farmers have become convinced of the benefit to be derived from a free use of manures, and have expended more money in the purchase of those supplies than at any former period. They are now promised a fertilizer of home manufacture, which will be superior to the imported article, and which can be obtained at a far less price."

—The following joke is going the rounds in the Western papers: The Superintendent of the Marietta and Cincinnati railway discharged a conductor belonging to that road. "Well," said he, "I was discharged for giving a free pass." "What made you such a fool as to give a free pass?" "Well, you see," replied the conductor, "I got tired of riding alone, and gave a friend of mine a free pass to get him to go along for company."

PATENT MEDICINES.

MRS. JACKSON'S
Queen Bess Complexion Wash.

THE following certificates, selected from hundreds in the possession of the proprietress, are confidently submitted to the public:

MRS. WOLCOTT'S CERTIFICATE.

QUINCY, Ill., November 5, 1866.

MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—It is with pleasure that I certify to you, that seeing one of your circulars which contained certificates and indorsements from the best physicians and the highest medical authorities of the United States, certifying that your oils for the complexion and teeth were purely the oils, extracts and essences of flowers, and they warrant it when used according to directions to cure the worst and most difficult cases of nursing, sore mouth, canker of the stomach, bowels and dyspepsia. For scrofulous disorders, when used both internally and externally, it has no equal. Dear Madam, seeing this, and my little daughter, aged fifteen months, having the whooping cough for several months, accompanied with what the doctors call white canker, her mouth and throat being terribly ulcerated, and I having tried everything for its relief I could hear of, all to no purpose, I bought one bottle of your oil for the complexion, called "Queen Bess," went according to the directions, did not use quite one bottle, and I am most happy to state to you that it has cured my child. She is now as well and hearty as ever she was in her life. I give you this, my certificate, hoping you will publish it, that thousands of others who may be afflicted with any of the above affections may at once get a bottle of your "Queen Bess," for I feel sure they will find immediate relief.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. GEO. WOLCOTT,
Jersey street, bet. Sixth and Seventh.

MRS. WM. R. COLLINS' CERTIFICATE.

HANNIBAL, Mo., August 22, 1866.

MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—I am most happy to inform you that after having suffered more than three years with what some physicians call nursing sore mouth, or canker of the mouth and throat, I tried various remedies, but found nothing to do me any good until I heard of your oils for the complexion and teeth, called "Queen Bess." I bought one bottle, went according to directions, and am truly thankful to say I have found a permanent cure. Hoping you will publish this, that other poor sufferers may be benefitted by it, I remain,

Yours respectfully,
MRS. WM. B. COLLINS.

AGENTS WANTED—Male or Female, in every town and county in the United States, to introduce this celebrated preparation. Agents are now making from $150 to $200 per month, clear of expenses. FASSMAN'S IRON TIES
—FOR—COTTON BALES.

THE undersigned have made extensive arrangements to supply the demand for these Ties the present season.

In addition to the FASSMAN DIAMOND TIE and BUTTON TIE, so extensively used heretofore, they now offer his ALLIGATOR TIE, with teeth so arranged as to instantly clasp the hoop when the pressure is removed from the bale, and hold it without slipping.

Great pains have been taken to secure the best quality of Iron.

These Ties are so simple in their arrangement that they can be applied by any one, to bales of any size, with the same facility and expedition as rope. In strength, security and facility of application, they will compare favorably with any yet introduced.

The advantages of Iron Ties are now generally recognized; but it is deemed not out of place to call the attention of those interested to the very emphatic recommendation of Underwriters, Steamboat Captains, and Owners and Agents of Sea-steamers and Sailing Vessels, recently published in the newspapers in New Orleans.

PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE CONDUCT OF THE APPEAL.

A Government of white men for white men; and no political miscegenation.

Loyalty to the Union of the States: Fidelity to the Constitution in its true extent and meaning: Obedience to and maintenance of all law, State and National, constitutionally enacted.

Resistance to Tyranny, Usurpation and Oppression, of one man or many; and to all encroachments upon the rights of freemen or of States, or upon the just and Constitutional prerogatives of any Department of the State or National Goverments.

No Establishments of Military despotisms, no enthroning of martial law, no suspension of the writ of Habeas Corpus, no slaying of citizens by Military Commission, no interference with the Courts, no lettres de cachet, in time of peace.

Strict subordination of the Military to the Civil Power.

No standing armies of States in time of peace.

Restoration of disfranchised citizens to all rights and privileges of which they have been disseized; no prosecutions or disqualifications for political opinions; for the Past, oblivion of offences; for the Present and Future, Union, Peace, Law and Order.

Perpetual assurance to all freemen of the African race, of all the civil rights of freemen.

No Repudiation, by State or Nation, of any honest and lawful debt.

No revival of old party differences; but a Union of all Conservative men, of all former parties, who revere the Constitution, to restore the old land-marks of the Government.

No legislation to plunder one portion of the country for the profit of another portion.

Whatever is just; whatever is right; whatever is of good repute, and worthy of the descendants of English freemen.

Gibson County.—Wise A. Cooper.
Madison County.—W. W. Gates.
Hardeman County.—Judge Miller.
McNairy County.—S. L. Warren.

With full power to appoint a Congressional Executive Committee for the 7th and 8th Congressional Districts of the State, with power to appoint Executive Committees for the several counties composing their respective Congressional Districts.

By order of the State Central Executive Committee of the Conservative party for the State of Tennessee.

RIGHTS OF NATURALIZED CITIZENS.

The Constitution of the United States provides that Congress may prescribe uniform rules of naturalization; but contains no provision whatever as to the rights that are to be possessed by foreigners who may be naturalized. Nor is there any statute that defines their rights; nor has it, so far as we know, ever been decided by the Courts what those rights are.

The subject is really involved in great difficulty. None of the European Governments have ever admitted that their subjects could, by expatriation and naturalization elsewhere, free themselves from their original allegiance; nor have the United States ever either legislatively or judicially declared that their own citizens can do so. On the contrary they have asserted the continued citizenship of some of their citizens who have emigrated to foreign countries, and of those who, at home, have endeavoured to divest themselves of that citizenship. In the Koszta case, Mr. Marcy, a great lawyer and able judge, and then Secretary of State, claimed for the United States the right to protect by their cannon, against his mother-country, a foreigner who had only made a declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States, who might never have carried his intention into effect, and had a right to decline doing so if he pleased; and who, if he had ceased to be a subject of Austria, had certainly not become a citizen of the United States, and therefore had no country at all, but was a filius nullius, in abeyance, as it were, between the two.

The action of Mr. Marcy was approved by the people of the United States, and has never yet been repudiated. According to that doctrine, a man may throw off his allegiance in an instant, by declaring his intention to be naturalized elsewhere. It is not likely that other nations will ever assent to this, even if they should agree to relinquish their claim to the allegiance of their subjects naturalized elsewhere.

It is nonsense to say that the Colonists who won their independence by the Revolutionary War, were all subjects or citizens of European nations; because they gained another citizenship, not by naturalization, but by revolution and the establishment of a separate nationality.

The United States have not by any formal constitutional or statutory provision, guaranteed to their naturalized citizens all the rights of the native-born, nor formally stipulated to protect them at all hazards, against their mother countries. It is rather singular that they should never have done so; and the reason undoubtedly has been, that they anticipated difficulties with foreign nations, if they should undertake to guarantee that protection. It is true that they ought, in honour and good faith, to have given that assurance and guarantee; and it is also true that they did assert the right to protect English subjects naturalized, and serving as seamen on board our vessels of war, by the war of 1812, which was fought chiefly for "Free Trade and Sailors' Rights." But, unfortunately, when the Treaty of Ghent was made, which ended the war, not a single word was said in respect to the rights of naturalized citizens; nor was anything settled for which we fought.

The law of Nations is established by the mutual consent of Nations; and Grotius, Vattel, Bynkershoeck, Puffendorf and others are not only its interpreters, but in large measure its authors, since they have announced many of the principles and rules which the Nations have adopted. Now, it is certainly not a settled principle of this law of Nations, that a subject may divest himself of his allegiance by becoming naturalized elsewhere, and still less by a simple declaration of his own to that effect. The right to throw aside allegiance involves the right to bear arms in the service of one's adopted country against the land of his birth: and the Nations have not as yet,—no Nation has,—recognized this right. There is no question that the English courts, in holding that the English subject cannot release himself from his allegiance, have only declared what the law of England really is. No Nation could agree that its subjects could at present throw off their allegiance; because, if they could, an army might in the middle of battle, go over to the enemy, without being guilty of any offence; since to do so would be the most positive of all possible declarations of their intention to cease to be its subjects. They might, upon doing so, immediately turn their guns upon the flag which they had deserted; and if Mr. Marcy's doctrine was correct, could thus instantaneously transfer their allegiance, and do so rightfully.

The United States, therefore, have no right to demand that foreign Nations shall agree that their citizens naturalized here shall be relieved of their original allegiance. No Nation can interfere in that way between a Government and its subjects. No Nation would consent that another should do it. The United States can not rightfully demand that a new principle shall be incorporated into the law of Nations, against the will of other Nations. England and France have no right to insist that the United States shall relinquish their right to the allegiance of their citizens. No one Nation, nor any number of Nations can interfere in respect to the relations between another nation and its subjects or citizens. That can only be done by negotiation: and our Government has never undertaken to negotiate on the subject; which it should have done at the beginning, if it did not intend to vindicate, if necessary, the right of its naturalized citizens, by arms, against their mother-countries. It should have been foreseen that, to leave the whole matter open and undetermined, was to make collisions and wars inevitable, unless we meant basely to abandon those whose allegiance we had accepted.

Is not our Government, nevertheless, bound to defend our naturalized citizens in the possession of all the rights that belong to the native-born, even vindicating these rights, if necessary, by arms? We think it is.

True, the United States have not expressly promised to do it; but the very acceptance of the allegiance of a native of another country, and imposing on the naturalized citizen the duty and obligation of bearing arms for us, even against the mother-country, entitles the party so naturalized, to ample and complete protection, and to all the rights, privileges and immunities of a citizen, native-born. The Constitution and the Statutes do not say or hint that the native-born citizen shall have any larger or other rights than the naturalized one; and therefore, when one is made a citizen, he necessarily possesses all the rights of citizenship. Nothing limits them. We require the foreigner, first of all, to renounce all allegiance to the Monarch or Government of his native country. By accepting that renunciation, we give him solemn and ample assurance that he no longer owes that allegiance, but is released and freed from it. It is a pledge of protection and that he shall be maintained in the possession of his rights at all hazards. If we permit a party born a subject of the British crown, but naturalized here, to be arrested, tried and condemned in England, as guilty of treason against the crown of England, our solemn pledge is violated and the nation is disgraced, and becomes among nations what a coward and liar is among men.

It is time, therefore, that Congress should declare by law what are the rights of naturalized citizens, and that the Government should endeavour, by the most efficient and vigorous means, to induce foreign Nations to assent to this change in their own established law. If it permits one naturalized Irishman to be convicted and hung, as guilty of treason against the British Crown, it is dishonoured beyond redemption. When Rome made those whom it conquered and annexed to itself Roman citizens, it protected them as such, against all the world, and each could say, as confidently as if he had been born in Rome, "Civis Romanus sum." When we engaged in the work of naturalization, we did so with our eyes open, and assumed all the responsibilities which the measure involved. We cannot shirk them or sneak out of them. If we do, we had better begin to

"Peep about
To find ourselves dishonorable graves."

The whole people of the United States should demand, with a cry like the noise of many waters, that this matter should be settled at once. They should not entrust it to that Charlatan of Charlatans, Seward, who never should have been trusted a moment, after slinking cur-like out of the Trent affair. The Nation ought to determine to have no interminable and farcical correspondence, like that about the Alabama claims. The life of the present generation is too short for that.

It is quite time for our fellow-citizens of foreign birth to demand of the Government that it shall for a little while, if the superior claims of the negro will permit, turn its attention to this matter, and have it definitely settled, even if to do it, the members of Congress should have to "intermit a deal" in the political game of faro that is always going on in the two Houses.

Mr. Robert J. Walker, in a late letter, thus urges the consideration of the subject on Congress and the Executive:

> If the doctrine of native perpetual allegiance be correct, our naturalization statutes are nullities, because in violation of the laws of nations; and the naturalized soldier or sailor who fights our battles at home and abroad is entitled to no protection, but may be seized and punished as a traitor by a foreign power, whenever the opportunity presents.
> The doctrine is monstrous, and strikes a fatal blow at our whole naval and military power, and threatens the existence of the Government. The question is vital, and should be brought to a speedy settlement. Foreign powers must acknowledge that our adopted citizens have the same rights to protection by this Government as citizens of American birth.
> I think, then, in view of recent events, and of the late brutal and bloody judicial murder of innocent men, (as I believe), in England, now is the time for the American Congress, by unanimous vote in both Houses, to announce to the world that the same protection will be extended by the Government to adopted native citizens. Independent of such declaration, I believe it to be a constitutional duty of the Executive Department under existing laws to issue a proclamation announcing to all foreign powers that the equal rights of adopted citizens, with those of American birth, guaranteed by the laws of Congress, will be maintained.

We may properly close this article with the following correspondence. Mr. Seward's letter is perfectly characteristic:

CINCINNATI, December 21, 1867.
Hon. W. H. Seward, Secretary of State, Washington, D. C.

Sir: In the year 1850 my father, then in his forty-sixth year, emigrated to the United States from Gerabronn, a village in Wurtemburg, without, however, renouncing officially his allegiance to the latter Government. We settled in Illinois, where, after the prescribed number of years had elapsed, my father became a naturalized citizen of the United States, by virtue of which act I, being but five years of age upon my arrival in this country, also am entitled to the rights, privileges and immunities of an American citizen.

About two weeks ago we recived advices from Europe communicating the intelligence that I and a brother, three years my junior, have been drafted, and our names published three times in the official newspapers as deserters from the army. Now, expecting to visit, at some future day, the home of my childhood, the land of my birth, around which cluster many pleasant recollections, I desire to know whether, as an American citizen, I shall be protected in the full exercise of my rights, or whether, on my return to the land of my nativity, the authorities can impress me, with impunity, into the army of a monarch to whom I can owe no allegiance, and who reigns under a system of government for which I can have no sympathy, but which I utterly renounce and detest with all the intensity of a nature which has been imbued, at an early day, with the love of freedom and equality—the principles which underlie this, "the fairest fabric men ever saw." I am either a subject of the King of Wurtemberg, or an American citizen. If the latter, I am entitled to the protection of our Government while in foreign countries. I claim the same protection from her that she demands from me, when occasion requires.

These are simply my humble opinions, and my object in addressing you is to ascertain the facts, and what is the law in such cases made and provided.

Trusting you will pardon me for thus trespassing on your valuable time, and hoping you will favor me with an early reply, I have the honor to remain, with sentiments of high regard, your obedient servant,
EMILE KAHN.

[Copy.]
DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
WASHINGTON, January 6, 1868.
Emile Kahn, Esq., Cincinnati, Ohio:

Sir: Your letter of the 24th ult., relating to the claim made by the Prussian Government upon you for military services, and asking whether you would be protected, as an American citizen, from such claim, should you visit Germany, has been received.

According to the latest information of this department, the Prussian Government has issued a decree by which, if a citizen of Prussia emigrates with or without permission, and is accompanied by his sons under seventeen years of age, and remains over ten years, they thereby lose their Prussian nationality.

You may, however, be subjected to some detention, trouble and expense before you will be able to establish the facts in your case, to which the Government cannot recommend you to expose yourself. Your obedient servant,
WM. H. SEWARD.

A BANK FAILURE.

It becomes our painful duty to record the closing of the Commercial Bank of Tennessee. Although we were, at the time of the writing of the article which appeared in our Sunday's issue, aware of the fact, still as a journalist we could only allude to it in such a manner as would prepare the public mind for the announcement, not being authorized to publish the fact in advance.

We have every reason to believe that the article in question produced the desired effect. Notwithstanding the announcement of the closing of one of our oldest and largest banks, the uneasiness of bank depositors did not correspond with the excitement manifested when the Tennessee National Bank closed last year—a bank which enjoyed very little confidence in our business community.

It cannot but be a matter of regret to many of our people to see an institution which has been so long identified with the growth and prosperity of our city—a bank with whose management many of our best citizens have been associated, and some whose memory is treasured in the hearts of our Southern friends—succumb after passing through so creditably the crisis of 1857, the fiery and trying ordeal of the late war, and the temporary and arbitrary closing of its doors by government officials.

It alone, amongst six chartered banks of issue of this city, passed triumphantly through the last seven years with credit unimpaired; a fact which reflected much honor on the financial ability of its President, Jesse W. Page, Jr., and of which our people had good reason to be proud, as few of our Southern banks remain in existence to-day of the many with large capital, which were the pride of our people before the war.

We are informed, and we believe correctly, that the assets of the bank are more than sufficient to meet all of its liabilities.

COMPTROLLER'S OFFICE,
MEMPHIS, January 13, 1868.
Editors Memphis Appeal:

My attention was called to your issue of yesterday, in which it is evident to my mind you have been misinformed; for I do not think you would intentionally do injustice to me, or other parties involved in the late misrepresentations about this office. The facts are, that no deposits of scrip, money, or other valuables of any kind, whatever, has been deposited in this office by any bank, banker or individual since the third day of January, 1868. Nor has any party whatever been in the habit, as has been reported, of overdrawing his account with the view of making it good by a subsequent deposit of scrip.

If any doubts exist as to the correctness of the above statement, I would be happy to satisfy you by referring you to the books of the office.

Respectfully, your ob'd't serv't,
W. M. CLARK, City Comptroller.

We cheerfully insert the above card of Mr. Clark, the Comptroller, and do not consider it necessary to add any comments. The balances standing on the Register's books against the bankers, as stated in our issue a few days ago, from subsequent personal examination, were correct, so far as the Register's books are concerned. After the publication of our article, on Saturday the 11th, credits were posted on the Register's books to several banks, amounting to about forty thousand dollars. It seems a peculiar way of doing business to have the checks of bankers charged and posted in the Register's ledger—against scrip previously deposited by them—and which deposits do not appear to their credit, according to the Comptroller's card, for eight days after he states the deposits were made. This accounts for the false position the banks were placed in, as showing them largely indebted to the city, by the Register's books on the 8th instant.

THE DEMOCRACY OF ARKANSAS.

A Convention of the Democratic party of Arkansas is to be held at Little Rock on the 27th inst., for the purpose of a more thorough organization of the party, of adopting rules of action, and of electing Delegates to the National Convention.

It is called by the Democratic State Central Committee; and all who desire the return of peace, with its manifold blessings, and are in favor of the economical administration of public expenditures; all who adhere to the Constitution of the United States, and approve the purposes for which it was ordained, as proclaimed by the white men who framed it; and who are not engaged in secret plots with ignorant and deluded negroes for establishing negro supremacy, and an arbitrary government on the ruins of the Union it was intended to perpetuate, are invited to co operate.

A circular letter from Wm. Byers, Esq., member of the State Central Committee for the First Congressional District, says:

> There is an effort being made to organize a party in this State of those who are in favor of the Union of the States, the supporting and defending of the Constitution of the United States, and the enforcement of the laws made in pursuance thereof—and who are opposed to universal negro suffrage, negro supremacy, negro equality, and the disfranchisement of white men, except for the commission of crime, when judicially ascertained.
> This organization commends itself to every patriotic citizen, and calls upon him to lend his aid in the accomplishment of its aims: the restoration of peace, harmony, and prosperity to the country. Old party names and prejudices should be forgotten, and a reunion of hearts, sentiments, and fellowship be made, upon the Constitution as our platform, interpreted and understood as it was by its framers and founders.

That is the platform on which we must stand in Tennessee: and when we do so, in good faith and honest loyalty, "without equivocation, mental reservation or self-evasion of mind whatever," the honest Union men of the State will unite with us to rescue the country from the degradation of negro domination, and will leave the carcass of Radicalism to rot like that of a dead wolf in the woods.

The Governor of Massachusetts, in his inaugural address lately said, in regard to the people of the South and the Abomination of Reconstruction:

> If embittered men refuse to accept the boon proffered, then the responsibility, the shame and the ruinous consequences will be theirs alone. If they are so blind to their own interest as to incite hostilities between races, they will find the nation is strong—that the nation will maintain its guarantees. No rights of loyal men will be surrendered to effect any settlement whatsoever. Equality of rights and universal suffrage are irreversible facts.

The phrase, "the boon proffered," as signifying the reconstruction devilment is decidedly worthy of Massachusetts, the Pecksniff among the States. Notwithstanding the threat, Arkansas will be very likely to refuse to accept "the boon proffered," and risk the consequences, by voting down any Constitution that the mongrels convened at Litle Rock may make. The impudence of the declaration that universal suffrage is an irrevisable fact, after the vote of New York and Ohio against it, is sublime.

SARCASTIC.

A Richmond dispatch says that Major Poe, Chief of Police, had been before a Military Commission, charged by the Reverend J. W. Hunnicutt with giving information which was untrue to a correspondent of some Northern paper, relative to an alleged incendiary speech made by that gentleman.

TELL THE TRUTH AND SHAME THE DEVIL.

The notorious Zachariah Chandler, who disgraces Michigan in the Senate of part of the United States, is reported in the Detroit Advertiser to have said in the caucus at Washington:

"There was no use in talking, it was a question of money, after all, and the Republican party must walk up to the captain's office and settle very liberally between now and the next Presidential election, or the South would go to the devil and the Copperheads. He thought, if necessary, $500,000 could be raised, and the party wasn't broke yet, nor no signs of it."

GENERAL NEWS.

—The St. Louis Provident Association.—This truly charitable association has been in existence in St. Louis since 1860, and has been the means of relieving a great deal of distress. Those to be aided consisted then, as now, of the following classes: 1st—Temperate, industrious, laborers, who, in time of distress, are either without work, or find their earnings insufficient for their familes. 2d—Indigent widows, or deserted wives with young children, whom they are struggling to support and educate. 3d—Mothers who by the needle are striving to earn a scanty subsistence, rendering charity necessary to keep them from suffering. 4th—The sick and bereaved generally, who have been brought by their misfortunes and the times to temporary want. 5th—Mechanics, who usually provide for their own support, but by loss of employment and exhaustion of their means, are compelled to apply for aid. The efforts of the Association in aiding each of these classes, have been to preserve their self-respect and sustain them in any respectable position they had previously held, thereby, if possible, to save them from sinking into abject poverty.

—By co-operation in cities through similar associations, an immense amount of suffering might be prevented, and at very little expense to those able to contribute, no matter how small the amount.

—The Settle-Foster Murder Case. It will be remembered that several months ago, Dr. M. Settle, of Panola county, Mississippi, was found dead in a road leading out from Sardis; that Gen. Armstrong Foster, who left the town with him, was arrested on suspicion of having committed the crime; and that the military wrested the prisoner from the civil authorities for trial by Military Commission. About a week ago the investigation before the commission, ordered by Gen. Ord, closed its labors at Holly Springs. Gen. Foster's attorneys were Maj. L. P. Cooper, of Panola county, Gen. Featherston, Col. H. W. Walter and Hon. J. W. C. Watson, of Holly Springs, and after a long and thorough examination of the case, the commission declared him guiltless, and he was accordingly discharged.

—The increased English income tax is but little over two per cent. How they would grumble, if they had to pay five, as we do!

—The Hon. S. F. Cary, in his late speech on the finances, says: "The great State of Tennessee, impoverished by war, her railroads dilapidated, her farms laid waste, without stock, without implements of husbandry, every industrial interest prostrated, having before the war $15,000,000 of bank capital, has now just $1,000,000. Tennessee needs money, and she cannot get it, even in New England, unless at an interest of two or three per cent. a month, with first class mortgage security. This nation needs her assistance in paying the interest and principal of our debt. Would it not be a wise policy to lend to the State of Tennessee $10,000,000 of greenbacks, taking therefor her four or five per cent. bonds, and made payable in ten or twenty years? The nation would be the gainer at the end of that period, even if the bonds were never paid." This arrangement no doubt would suit those who had charge of our late school fund, if the ten millions were placed in their hands for safe keeping.

He also truthfully says: "I venture the opinion that there is a great deficiency in the volume of currency. In no country in the world is the supply so small when compared with the commerce and the various enterprises requiring money."

—Two whisky distilleries were seized yesterday at Boonville, Missouri, for defrauding the revenue.

—The United States District Attorney has filed a suit against Grotenkemper & Co., for $185,000 for delinquent whisky tax. A similar suit has been entered against David Gibson for an amount not ascertained.

—The abandonment of Chase by the bankers, Jay Cooke & Co., is perhaps the most signal act of ingratitude. The Chief Justice created the opportunity for them to amass their princely fortune, and they deserted him at the very crisis of his Presidential perils. Secretary McCulloch, hitherto regarded as a strong friend of Chase, is also against him. Fremont is among his warmest supporters.

TENNESSEE ITEMS.

—The Murfreesboro' Monitor of the 11th says: "The thriving little city of the mountains, McMinnville, has followed nobly in the wake of Memphis. Last Monday Samued Henderson, Conservative, was elected Mayor at that place, over Johnson, Radical, by a handsome majority. The defeated candidate hails from Ohio, and was a Major in the Federal army."

—There were only forty-three marriage licences issued in Madison county within the past five weeks!

—The particulars of a distressing affray at Huntersville, Madison county, on the 7th inst., in which an old man named Britton was killed by his son-in-law Bantin, will be found in our local columns. The latter was held to bail in the sum of $2000 to answer at the Circuit Court, which is in session at Jackson.

—There are four hundred cases on docket for adjudication the present term of the Madison Circuit Court.

—The Jackson Whig of the 11th says: A squad of eight or ten negroes reached this city yesterday from Memphis. They were thought to have been voters.

—Dan Castello's show will be at Chattanooga to-day.

—All the rivers in East Tennessee are rising. The Holston at Knoxville, and the Tennessee had risen four feet at Chattanooga on the 10th. An overflow is expected, unless cold weather should check the anticipated rise.

—The river at Knoxville is higher than it has been since the flood last year, and is rising four inches per hour. The false work for the third and fourth spans of the Charleston and Knoxville Railroad bridge have been carried away.

—There were forty-one marriage licenses issued in Hardeman county for the month of December. We did not notice M. L. Parish's among them.

—At Hartsville, on the Cumberland river above Nashville, hogs are selling at five cents gross and corn shelled and sacked at $2 25 per barrel. This is the cheapest we have heard of—only forty-five cents per bushel. Let it be bought up for the destitute of the South.

—On Sunday of last week twenty-eight barges of coal started from the Cumberland mines for Nashville, where it sells at $5 50 per ton for round and $7 for lump.

MISCELLANEOUS.

—Every merchant who advertises, laughs in his sleeve when he hears a merchant, who does not advertise, complain about dull times.

—The Medical Gazette of Paris states that M. Luguanterie, of Paris, after observing the effect of sulphur on the oidium of grape vines, was led to administer it in several cases of croup. He mixes a teaspoonful of sulphur in a glass of water, and gives a teaspoonful of this mixture every hour. The effect is described as wonderful. The disease is cured in two days, the only symptom remaining being a cough arising from the presence of loose pieces of false membrane in the trachea. Mr. L. says he has followed this plan in seven cases, all being severe, especially the last, in which the child was cyanotic, with protruded rolling eyes, and noisy respiration.

—The following is the order in which the original thirteen States adopted the Constitution of the United States. According to a provision of the Constitution, it became binding upon the States ratifying it when adopted by nine States. New Hampshire was the important ninth State: 1. Delaware, December 7, 1787; 2. Pennsylvania, December 12, 1787; 3. New Jersey, December 18, 1787; 4. Georgia, January 2, 1788; 5. Connecticut, January 9, 1788; 6. Massachusetts, February 7, 1788; 7. Maryland, April 28, 1788; 8. South Carolina, May 23, 1788; 9. New Hampshire, June 21, 1788; 10. Virginia, June 25, 1788; 11. New York, July 26, 1788; 12. North Carolina, November 21, 1789; 13. Rhode Island, May 27, 1790.

—If we remember rightly, the Chinese have not until very recently coined any gold or silver. The small change of the country has been the "copper cash," worth one-tenth of our cent, or thereabouts, while the only silver coin in circulation was the Mexican dollar, which in time became to some extent the standard of value. Silver was generally made into what was called "Sycess silver," the metal being swedged or pounded into the shape of a clumsy shoe, the pieces fitting one into another like so many saucers, and being dealt out by weight, as our bankers and brokers buy and sell bullion. Gold was little used, and not coined at all. Of late, however, the Chinese are coining gold, and samples are exhibited here as curiosities. These coins are in the main like the copper cash with which every Californian is familiar, having a square hole in the middle, a polished rim around the edge without milling, and raised characters between the raised disc and the center. The gold appears to be entirely pure, or alloyed differently from ours, being of a bright yellow hue, and lacking wholly the red tinge observable in our coin, and the weight is equal to about three dollars and forty cents of our coinage. The exact value of the coin we do not know. It is not equal to our coinage in finish, but is nevertheless, quite a handsome coin.—San Francisco Alta Californian.

SPECIALS TO APPEAL.

ARKANSAS.

THE UNAUTHORIZED CONVENTION LAID OVER.

LEGISLATURE TO ELECT STATE OFFICERS.

NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

[Special Dispatch to Memphis Appeal.]

Little Rock, January 13.—Convention met at 10 o'clock a.m.

The special order for the day, with substitute, was made the special order for Monday next.

Kyle made a motion that a committee of three be appointed to inquire into the expediency of the Legislature electing the State judiciary, Secretary of State, State Auditor and State Treasurer, which was adopted.

Hinds offered a resolution memorializing Congress for aid in building levees to protect the lands of the State subject to overflow. Adopted.

Cypert moved to adopt, without material change, the present Constitution of the State, it being the same formed March 18, 1864, under Lincoln's proclamation, and approved by Lincoln.

Hinds moved to refer to the Committee on Penitentiary.

Cypert hoped that it would not be referred. He thought the Constitution now stands good enough—the same in substance as that of Ohio and almost every other Northern State. If Northern States denied the negro the right of suffrage, why should Arkansas accord them that privilege? Should Congress ask the State of Arkansas to give the negro more rights than are accorded to him in Ohio or other Northern States? The people of Arkansas don't want negro suffrage. Her oldest and most respectable citizens were opposed to any such measure. They would not agree that men thrown into the State by the advent of the Federal army, or who came since the surrender, mere adventurers with carpet bag in hand, should force negro suffrage upon the citizens of the State—should elevate the negro above the white man. He (the speaker) would ever raise his voice and use his influence against such an act of injustice and wrong. This is a white man's government, and white men should control and rule it. He was a friend to the negro—a better one than the hypocritical gang of sharpers who were using the negro as a tool but he would never agree that franchise would ask negroes on the floor here.

Brooks, of Phillips county, sung out "order," and said that the gentleman on the floor should be most particularly distinguished. Calling them negroes was derogatory. Cypert ruled the motion out of order.

In a speech of half an hour he fully demonstrated that he would make no distinction as to races, and argued strongly in favor of the adoption of the proposed ordinance.

One Gray, a negro delegate from Phillips county, thanked God that he was then free, although not born so. That he and his ancestors were not the framers of the Constitution was a slight matter. Every man should be made, without distinction of race or color, equal. The negroes had made blood flow like water, and had done much to crush the late rebellion, which without franchise no negro would be equal with the white citizen in every particular. Give the negro a chance for eighteen hundred years and he will prove himself equal, if not superior, to the white man. The gentleman ought to accept the present situation. Give the negro a chance—cut through the alluvial soil of prejudice down to the hard, adamantine clay of justice, and always contend for equal rights to all men and was willing to stake his life on the issue. He had always advocated that principle, and his record was equal rights everywhere. The North was only waiting for the South to swallow first the bait of negro suffrage, she would then quickly take the dose.

FROM COLUMBUS, OHIO.

Columbus, Ohio, January 13.—R. B. Hays was inaugurated Governor of Ohio to-day.

A Democratic caucus will be held to-night to nominate a Senator. Judge Sherman will probably be the nominee.

FROM LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, January 13.—The river is falling fast, with fourteen feet in the canal. The weather is cloudy, with the thermometer at 24°.

The Indiana, Legal Tender and St. Charles have arrived from New Orleans.

FROM ATLANTA.

Atlanta, Ga., January 13.—A general order issued by Meade to-day removes Charles J. Jenkins, Provisional Governor, and John Jones, Provisional Treasurer. [Here the last lines went down in consequence of the heavy sleet. Rep.]

TELEGRAPHIC MARKETS.

Clover seed, firm at $12 50. Flaxseed, $2 25. Raw sugar, 13@15c. Coffee, 20@24½c.

—A Madrid paper says scientific researches have established the fact that the Pyrenees have, in the last twenty years, lost thirty metres in altitude. Supposing the depression to continue, our worthy cotemporary calculates that, after the lapse of one thousand years, the chain that separates Spain from France will realise the celebrated words, "Il n'y a plus de Pyrenees," by disappearing altogether, in which case the Ebro will fall into the Bay of Biscay instead of emptying itself into the Mediterranean.

—A London letter contains this: A mot is attributed to little Princess Beatrice, who is declared to have addressed her ma in the following precocious and humorous fashion: "Ma, wouldn't it be a good thing, to save fighting with Theodore, for one of us to marry him, instead of your finding out another German prince? I am sure it would be a very good change. Germans are so common. Everybody has a German. I would rather you should bring me a husband from Japan. But Theodore's a capital thought. Isn't he ma?"

LATE NEWS.

—The directors of the Atlantic Telegraph have issued loans of £1,300,000 sterling, to purchase all the rights and interest of the Anglo-telegraph Company in the two cables across the Atlantic, and pay off their indebtedness.

—Charles Mackay, a Democrat, was elected to the State Senate from Santa Clara county, California. The Senate now stands twenty-one Republicans to nineteen Democrats.

—Ben Butler was to have made a speech in Richmond, Virginia, last night.

—Reports from the southern portion of California give the particulars of the recent disastrous storm. The greater part of the country is under water. Many cattle and much property were lost. The water was two feet deep in houses in Visalia.

—The body of James Kirkman, who has been missing for some time in Nashville, was found in the woods on the 11th. It is undecided whether he froze to death or was murdered.

—Gov. Jenkins of Georgia was removed for refusing to pay the Convention. Gen. Dunn, of Pope's staff, has been appointed to fill the place.

—The employees of the Pacific mill, in Lawrence, Mass., have been notified of a reduction of fifteen per cent. of their wages after the 15th instant. Similar reductions are contemplated in other factories.

—It is asserted that a raid is about to be made upon the whisky rings alleged to exist in different large cities, and if many parties notoriously implicated are not removed an exposure will be made in the House.

—Judge Black, chief counsel in the case of Mr. McCardle of Mississippi, now before the Supreme Court, which involves the constitutionality of the reconstruction laws, will this week make a motion to bring the case forward without delay. Otherwise, from its place on the docket, it could not be reached for two years. If the case is not brought forward, it is of but little consequence; because, before it can regularly be reached, the Southern States will be restored on some terms to the Union. It is generally believed the military authorities will appear by other counsel than the Attorney General, for the reason that he has publicly declared his conviction that the acts in question are wholly unconstitutional.

We clip the following from the Augusta Chronicle and Sentinel:

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS OF THE SAVANNAH AND AUGUSTA R. R. CO.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Savannah and Augusta Railroad Company was held in Savannah, Monday, and the following named persons were elected as a Board of Directors: R. A. Allen, Augusta; John Stoddard, Wm. Duncan, A. R. Lawton, Wm. Hunter, of Savannah; John Davidson, Augusta; F. T. Willis, Savannah.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS OF THE CENTRAL RAILROAD AND BANKING COMPANY.

We learn from the Savannah Republican that a meeting of the stockholders of the Central Railroad and Banking Company was held on Monday at the office of the Company, and the following named persons elected as a Board of Directors without opposition: William M. Wadley, Andrew Low, John R. Wilder, Wm. B. Johnston, Gen. J. F. Gilmer, George W. Wylly, John Cunningham, Edward Padelford, George W. Anderson.

The Bank Note Library.

The library of canceled notes covers an enormous area under the office of the Bank of England. These catacombs are filled with wooden racks, in which are placed more than 16,600 deal boxes of about one foot in height and breadth, and eighteen inches in length. In these boxes or coffins lie, carefully packed, bundles of assorted notes, and on the outside are printed certain letters and figures, which to the officers of these gloomy abodes, tell the date and rank of the deceased. These notes are kept for seven years, and so complete is the arrangement that any single note, the date and number of which can be known, can be produced in five minutes by the person in charge of this department. The nominal value of these buried notes at the present time exceeds £3,000,000,000, the actual number of notes being about 1,000,000,000. Strange and curious instances of the longevity of some of these flimsy bank notes are continually occurring, and their histories, if one could trace them, would afford abundant materials for romance. One pound notes which have long since passed away from circulation on the south side of the Tweed, and which are now mainly associated in the minds of Englishmen with forgery and capital punishment, present themselves for recognition and payment at the average of about two per month. During the thirty years preceding that of the abolition of capital punishment for forgery, there were not less than 1816 convictions for this crime, the majority of forgeries being of one pound notes, and of the persons so convicted, six hundred and thirty-eight were hung in various parts of the country. A few weeks since a two pound note, a kind of which only a very small number were printed at the commencement of the present century, presented itself to claim its long-promised two sovereigns of gold. Some are worn to almost undistinguishable rags—the amount of the note has disappeared, but the date and signature afford the clue to its identification in the bank ledgers. The oldest note in the possession of the bank is one of 1698. A £25 note, of more than a century old, was presented a short time since, when it was calculated that the compound interest of the amount, supposing it to have been recoverable, would have been £6000.

Death of Mrs. Sam Houston. From the Houston Telegraph we learn that Mrs. Margaret M. Houston, relict of Gen. Sam Houston, died of yellow fever at Indianola, on the 3d inst.

—OF THE—
HOMESTEAD TRACT
—OF—
GEN. SAMUEL J. HAYS,
At Jackson, Tenn.
WE SHALL, through Messrs. ROYSTER, TREZEVANT & CO., Auctioneers, offer at public sale, upon the premises
On Thursday, 16th day of January,
The beautiful and valuable Homestead Tract of the late Gen. SAMUEL J. HAYS, containing 1150 acres of land in and immediately adjacent to the city of Jackson, Tenn., subdivided into Lots and small Tracts, suitable for Residences and small Farms. The Mansion is one of the most elegant and spacious in Tennessee, situated on beautiful and highly ornamented ground. The advantages of Railroad facilities from the two roads now in operation, to be increased by the Vincennes and New Orleans Air Line road, passing through Paducah and connecting with the Mississippi Central at this point, make it a center of commercial and manufacturing importance which has given vitality and growth to Jackson, even under all the depressing influences which have retarded almost every other place in the South. In society and health, Jackson is notoriously one of the most attractive cities in the South.
Terms of Sale.—Third cash; balance in one and two years, with interest, secured by trust deeds.

BUSINESS.—We request that our advertising patrons hand in their favors at the Counting Room by six o'clock p.m., to insure insertion next day. Obituary and Death notices will be received at the Composition Room up to eleven o'clock.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—Hereafter individual bills of any employe or proprietor of this paper will not be allowed as an off set against accounts for advertising. All bills against the APPEAL will be paid on presentation, and no bill will be allowed unless contracted by me or by my authority. JOHN AINSLIE, Cashier and Business Manager.

TO THE PATRONS OF THE APPEAL.—Subscribers are requested to report any irregularities in the delivery of the APPEAL at the Counting-room. Carriers will be furnished weekly with certificates authorizing them to collect subscriptions. ED. J. MANSFORD, Superintendent of Circulation.

REMOVAL.

Our friends will remember that the APPEAL BUSINESS OFFICE is now located at No. 13 Jefferson street.
The EDITORIAL ROOMS of the APPEAL have been removed to No. 14 Jefferson street, upstairs, where we will be glad to see our friends at all times.

TO ADVERTISERS.

Those indebted to the APPEAL for advertising, and whose accounts are past due, will please come forward and settle the same by the 15th instant, or they will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. JOHN AINSLIE, Cashier.

ACTING MAYOR.—Alderman McDavitt is acting Mayor during the absence of the Hon. John W. Leftwich, who will be gone about two weeks.

THE COUNCIL.—The Board meets to-night in regular session, when it is supposed that the bond question will be settled.

DO YOU WANT A FORTUNE?—Go to the office of the Phœnix Insurance Company, 280 Main street, and buy tickets in the "Grand Special Scheme of the Raleigh Springs." Tickets $5.

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.—We desire to acknowledge the receipt of late files of Southern and Eastern papers received through Mr. Felix Cross, of the Southern Express Company, in advance of the mails.

BURNED.—A small negro girl, employed in the house by Col. Robertson, on Wellington street, was so badly burned on Sunday evening from her clothes taking fire as to endanger her recovery.

STEALING A COW.—Mr. H. D. Hessick, who resides at 164 Alabama street, lost from his stable on Sunday night a very valuable black cow. Information has been given to the police, and hopes are entertained the animal will speedily be restored to its owner.

HORSE THIEVES SENT UP.—The following named persons were before Mr. Justice Moore yesterday on the charge of horse stealing and sent up in the premises: Geo. Anderson, Jno. Grass, Thos. A. Smith and J. A. VanDyke were the accused parties.

CAUGHT IN THE GAME.—A negro, one Perceval Allen, who appeared before Justice Moore, yesterday, as a witness in favor of the alleged horse thief Anderson, was arrested and committed as an accomplice. He is suspected of drawing a false bill of sale.

THE WEATHER.—Since our last, the weather has been very changeable. We had snow Sunday morning, and yesterday rain, sleet, hail and snow. Again the walking was slippery in the extreme, the pavements being glazed and very dangerous to pedestrians.

THE STREET LAMPS.—The fact that the moon does not rise until about half-past ten, is no reason why the city streets, through the negligences of the Gas company, should be in darkness for five or six hours. If the city pay for gas they should have it.

BURGLARS AT WORK.—The store of Mr. H. Marks, No. 162 Main street, was entered by some burglars yesterday morning, when six sacks of feathers and a bed-tick was stolen. The burglars entered the house from the rear, and got off with their booty.

SERIOUS FIRE.—The residence of Geo. H. Leguere, about two and a half miles from the city, on the State line road, was totally consumed by fire about half past one o'clock yesterday. The property was valued at about seven thousand dollars, and was only partially insured.

CITY SCRIP.—It has been rumored on the streets that the present Mayor will not for the present issue any more city scrip. The confidence of our citizens and bankers in the new administration has caused this commodity to rise in value during the past week.

CORNER OF THIRD AND JEFFERSON STREETS.—W. H. Passmore & Co. will proceed to sell at public auction all the household furniture now in the Hotel de Europe, this morning at 10 o'clock, upon which occasion bargains can be had.

BY REFERENCE to another column it will be seen that Thomas W. Reilly is a candidate for the office of Register of Deeds. Mr. Reilly is both eligible and efficient for the position—has served several years among the records of St. Louis county, Missouri—is well and favorably known here for several years.

THE CONFIDENCE GAME.—A negro named Charles Smith was arrested by officer Cusick, charged with practicing the lock game. The accused won five dollars from a boy, who refused to give up the currency, when Smith snatched it and ran. The clerical commissioner will investigate the case this morning.

DISTRIBUTION OF PREMIUMS.—On Sunday the pupils of St. Peter's Sunday School, under the auspices of the Christian Doctrine Association, received the premiums they had merited. About five hundred were distributed, consisting of medals, books, pictures, etc. Miss Mollie Twohig and Master John McMullen received gold medals.

PERSONAL.—We were pleased yesterday to receive a visit from Dr. R. B. Gorshon of the State Gazette, published at Dyersburg, Tenn. He is fully indorsed by our country cousin, Tom. W. Neal, and therefore entitled to our kind consideration. The Doctor is soliciting business for the Gazette. He is putting up at the Worsham, and will remain in town several days.

WE take pleasure in referring to the card of our friends Price & Treadwell, commission merchants, 15 Union street, Lee Block, who are among our oldest and most solid business houses. Not discouraged by the "hard times," they are ready to serve their friends with the same scrupulous fidelity and untiring energy that has always characterized them.

WATCHES GONE.—Complaint was made at a Justice's office yesterday that G. W. Bowman did steal, take and carry away from Mrs. Bowman and A. Brook, one lady's gold watch, valued at one hundred and thirty dollars, and a small one worth thirty-five, together with one hundred and forty-five dollars in currency. Up to latest advices the accused had not been arrested.

RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS.—Mr. R. J. Davis, who is the proprietor of a trading boat at our landing, was arrested yesterday charged with receiving stolen goods. It appears that a man bought breadstuffs from Davis, and not having the currency to liquidate the debt left a shotgun in pledge, for the possession of which he was arrested and will be examined be- [illegible]

GREAT FIRE AT SARDIS.

Full Particulars.

SARDIS, MISS., Sunday night, Jan. 11, 1868.

Since I wrote the hasty note which I sent you this morning, I have endeavored to collect all the particulars of the terrible fire which so nearly destroyed our beautiful little town last night, and will now give them to you as briefly as it may be done. The fire broke out on the northeast corner of Carlton's store, and was first discovered by Col. Ballentine, who happened to walk out about half past two o'clock a.m. From every indication the building had been fired by some person on the outside, and the young gentlemen sleeping in the store had not used a candle in that part of the house during the entire day or night. The flames spread so rapidly that of three young gentlemen sleeping in the bedroom in the rear portion of the building, not one of them saved a solitary article of wearing apparel, except such as they had on when awakened, and Mr. W. Parke Carlton lost a valuable watch, greatly prized, being a gift from his mother. Mr. O'Neal lost all his money, clothing, and valuable papers amounting to several thousand dollars. Capt. John W. McCracken was sleeping in Spain & Hightower's store, which was about twenty-five feet south of Carlton's, and on being awakened roused his brother Tate, and Mr. Heath and Mr. Wall, in the adjoining store of Ballentine & Wall, and all went to work to save the goods in these two stores, for without engine, hose or anything of the kind, all saw that it was utterly impossible to save the buildings. In the meantime nearly the whole town had reached the scene of excitement, and the flames had spread to the store of F. M. D. Bonner & Co., on the north, from which goods were hurriedly removed. The store of Heflin & Hobgood, just opposite Carlton's was scorching, and Mr. Hastings and the proprietors together with Mr. John Laird and Mr. Johnson (a carpenter residing here), were laboring indefatigably with wet blankets to save the already smoking building. Here Mr. Johnson performed a feat for which the Insurance Companies covering the property ought to make him a suitable present. Blankets could be hung on the south side of the comb, but the north side was covered with ice, and it was a most hazardous undertaking to mount it. Mr. Johnson however faced the danger, mounted the icy roof and spread the blankets. He slipped once, but caught and came down in safety.

Webb's saloon and Davidson & Blann's store, north of Bonner's, next caught and were soon destroyed, and here was waged the war. Proudfit's store was next. If that went, away went all down to the Baptist church. Mr. Tom Williams of your city, by his nerve and management, saved it. He drew his pistol and ordered all bystanders to work, (himself doing the work of half a dozen men) and gallantly they responded, and in the midst of such heat as that some had actually to have buckets of water thrown upon them. The progress of the fire was here arrested after a most determined and desperate struggle, though Mr. Proudfit's house and goods were damaged several hundred dollars. The three first stores mentioned, viz: Carlton's, Spain & Hightower's, and Ballentine & Wall's were rapidly consumed, though every thing was saved out of the two latter that possibly could be. In the last mentioned, Mr. Tate McCracken and Mr. Barton were in the second story at work, while the fire was above and all around them till finally Tate started down, and calling to Barton to follow him, barely reached the first floor when the rear of the upper building fell in, and the front being already in flames, Mr. Barton was forced to make a hasty exit through a window on the south side, and was fortunate in escaping with only a sprained ankle. The storehouse lately occupied by McLefresh & Co., next took fire, and being empty and unoccupied was soon consumed, and here the work of destruction ended. During the progress of the fire, however, the stores of Mr. Gunter and Mr. Proudfit, the railroad depot, the Terrell House, and Capt. Crump's residence, were several times on fire, but all fortunately were saved. Mr. Gunter especially was fortunate in having a peculiar engine of an old pattern, which he placed on the top of his house and found invaluable in quenching the flames. Its general use on such occasions would, no doubt, save insurance companies many dollars, and it is not at all expensive. This is the first fire that has ever occurred in Sardis, and it has destroyed a large amount of property including one or two as handsome and creditable stores as could be found in the State. The losses may be summed up as follows: Ballentine & Wall, about $35,000—insured for $10,000; Spain & Hightower, $20,000—no insurance; W. P. Carlton & Co., $18,000—insurance, $10,000; Bonner & Co., $7500—insurance $5000; Webb, $500—insurance, $500; Davidson & Blann, $3000—no insurance; Col. J. G. Ballentine, $1000—no insurance; Maj. J. F. Simmons, $1200—no insurance; J. H. Proudfit, $500—insured; J. F. Flautt, $150; McLefresh, $2000.

Of the Insurance Companies, I believe the DeSoto, the Hernando, the People's, and the Planters', are the principal sufferers in your city.

In haste. Good night.
RIP VAN WINKLE.

[As we had no paper yesterday morning, we did not think it necessary to publish the first communication of our correspondent. The above gives all the necessary particulars.—ED.]

SKATING! SKATING!!—Good skating on Hopefield Lake, opposite Memphis.

DEMOCRATS AND CONSERVATIVES.

REWARD.—The sum of fifty dollars' reward will be paid to any person returning the gold-headed ebony cane bearing the inscription, "John Ainslie, Esq., of the Memphis APPEAL. From his friends, January 1, 1868." No questions asked.

[redacted]

IMPORTANT SALE.—To morrow morning, at ten o'clock, one of the most important auction sales of the season will take place at 256 Second street. John A. Dickinson sells out, and W. H. Passmore & Co., are the auctioneers. All kinds of carpets, oil cloths, shades and curtains will be offered. The sale is positive. Those desiring great bargains should not fail to attend. This is a chance rarely met with.

MORE CONTEMPTS.—An order was given by Judge Hunter, of the Criminal Court, yesterday, for the arrest of Col. S. B. Beaumont, Superintendent of the Metropolitan police, and Mr. J. M. Campbell, local editor of the Avalanche, the former for giving information and the latter for publishing the article of contempt. Whose head will next be endeavored to be cut off?

LARGE EAGLE KILLED.—A few days ago, Messrs. C. M. Teague and J. P. Baird were out turkey hunting, in Fayette county, when they perceived a large bird trying to catch, as they thought, some turkeys, which were near at the time. Thinking that it would be better sport to kill an eagle than the game they were hunting, they fired at and succeeded in killing it, when, upon an examination, it proved to be one of the largest birds of the grey eagle species. It measured seven and a half feet between the tips of its wings.

EPISCOPALIAN MEETING.—A meeting of the members of the various Episcopal Churches of the city was held yesterday at Calvary Church, when the Rev. Dr. Wheat was called to the chair and the Rev. Mr. Simpson appointed Secretary. The Rector of Calvary Church, Rev. Dr. Geo. White, introduced resolutions of condolence to the family of the late Bishop Hopkins, which were unanimously adopted. The lamented Dr. Hopkins was one of the most eminent clergymen of the Episcopal Church on the American continent, and his loss will be severely felt by his co-religionists.

INDEPENDENT ORDER BRITH ABRAHAM.—According to a previous announcement, a new Lodge of the above named order was opened by our Jewish citizens yesterday by the R. W. G. M. of the United States Grand Lodge, S. R. Biesenthal, Esq., of Louisville, Ky., assisted by the G. R. of the District Grand Lodge No. 2., H. Nassauer, Esq., of Nashville, Tenn. The said lodge was named Hebrew Lodge No. ——. It is a benevolent order for its members, and also an aid to devotion for all the members of the order at large. The new lodge was instituted and the officers installed by the above named grand officers with the most solemn, appropriate and becoming ceremonies, and the following were its officers installed: Martin Cohen, Esq., E.; J. Levy, V. E.; Jacob Kaliski, Secretary; L. Levy, Treasurer; S. Peyser, J. G.; H. Goodman, Cond.; B. Louis, O. G.; M. Bren, P. E. After the officers were installed the said grand officers, Messrs. Biesenthal and Nassauer, delivered a lecture in behalf of the order, and specially for this new lodge, which was received and marked by its new members, wh[illegible] in their minds the g[illegible]

AMUSEMENTS.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER—HAMLET. Notwithstanding the sleet in the afternoon, and the two inches or more of slushy snow in the evening, the theater was crowded—every place being occupied to see Mr. Booth's Hamlet. They were not disappointed—at least those who really are judges of fine conception and inimitable acting. We have made it a point to institute no comparisons—as Dogberry says, they are "odorous"—but we were satisfied with Mr. Booth's Hamlet as the emanation of a scholar and student, when he said we were just as sure it was a lapsus linguæ, as if we had been reading from Shakspeare, and, by the thickness of our tongue, or casually impeded utterance, had slipped in a superfluous "a." The interview with his mother was exquisite, as was that with Ophelia, when he discovered the King and Polonius are eavesdropping. The love of Hamlet shows itself there, even through the assumed madness, which is boisterous for a purpose. The "Ghost," by Mr. Roche, was the best thing we have seen from him this season. The "Ophelia" of Miss McVicker, was applauded, and especially the plaintive music, which was remarkably well sung. The "Queen" had an excellent representation in Mrs. Allen; and "Horatio," by Mr. Brown, was just what Hamlet wanted. Altogether, the play was throughout well performed. This evening Richelieu for the second time.

"What a piece of work is a man."

THE VARIETIES.—Several new faces appeared at the Varieties last night, among which were the Delaware boys. They were well received, and gave pleasure and amusement to the audience. The dancing of Miss Wharton, the song and dance of Miss Kate Partington, and the comic songs of Tony Benton, always please. The Varieties, under the management of Mr. Broom, is a pleasant place to spend an hour.

WORTHY MEN NEEDING EMPLOYMENT.—We invited the attention of Conservatives a day or two since to certain coloured men in this city, who deserved their patronage and encouragement. We wish now more particularly to mention two who, without solicitation, have done good service from the beginning. These are Marengo Johnson and Benley Mitchell, both intelligent men, and the former said to be a good speaker, who, months ago, incurred the hostility of those of their own colour by openly opposing the designs of the Loyal Leaguers. The former has nine children to support, and is in ill health. We commend both to the attention of the Executive Committee. Their desire is to get some small farm to cultivate on shares. We wish also to say a word in behalf of one whom we have known since he was a child. Dennis Notrebe, who was reared by Frederic Notrebe, at the Post of Arkansas, was his favourite servant, and is one of the most capable, as steward or house servant, or to work in a store, in the world. He is honest, trustworthy and intelligent, and wholly out of employment.

THE ALARM OF FIRE.—The alarm of fire, last night about half past five o'clock, was occasioned by the bursting of flames from the northeast corner of the ice house of Bohlen, Huse & Co., on Washington street, near the corner of Third. The engines were promptly on hand, but their services were not required. The damage done by the fiery element was very light, which was fully covered by insurance.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL—SALE OF FINE FURNITURE.—A large and varied assortment of furniture will be offered at public sale this (Tuesday) morning, at the Commercial Hotel. Those desiring to purchase furniture, bedding, etc., at a great sacrifice, will do well to attend this sale. Some of the finest and best furniture of the house is yet to be sold. Sale to commence at ten o'clock a.m., and will be continued each day at the same hour, until all the furniture of the house is sold.

EMMONS & SON, No. 10 Jefferson street, and 353 Main street, have received Police News, Harpers' Weekly, Police Gazette, Southern Home Journal, New York Observer, Scientific American, New York Weekly, Kelly's Weekly, Pen and Pencil Weekly, Pleasant Hours for February, Staats Zeitung, Rural New Yorker, Scottish American, Frank Leslie's Illustrated, Peterson's Magazine for February, Tribune Almanac for 1868, Boys' and Girls' Weekly, Horticulturist for January.

RAPID RAILROAD TRAVELING—NEW SCHEDULE.—By the new schedule arrangement for the year 1868, which went into operation on the 5th inst., the mail and passengers arrived from New Orleans to Louisville in forty-six hours, including all stoppages. All the connections to Louisville were made complete up to the new schedule time, without a delay of five minutes at any point, which is making rapid railroad traveling, and reducing the system to perfection. By this new schedule the train from New Orleans leaves daily at 4½ p.m., gaining two hours and a half to Jackson, Tenn., and shortening the time through to New York twelve hours!

This new arrangement, so desirable to the traveling community, has been effected by the joint energy and enterprise of those distinguished and talented General Superintendents, Col. T. S. Williams, of the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern railroad; Col. Fleming, of the Mobile and Ohio railroad; E. D. Frost, of the Mississippi Central, and Albert Fink, of the Nashville and Memphis and Louisville roads, so as to connect with all the great lines East and North via Knoxville and Louisville. Passengers from New Orleans via Memphis and Humboldt make the same time in going to Louisville, as the connections are now perfect. We congratulate the traveling community and the [illegible] companies, in the change thus effected, as, by taking the magnificent sleeping cars on these lines, one wakes up just where he desires to be.

HOW THEY VOTE.—One of Capt. Lann's freedmen came home on Thursday evening from the Athens poll, where he had been exercising the right (?) now vouchsafed the unwashed universe, when the following colloquy took place:
"Well, boy, who did you vote for?"
The boy studied for a little while, and then said:
"I dosent zacly member his first name, but nigh as I can get at it, dey call him Massa Convention."
Lann then asked him who that man Convention was.
"Dunno, but dey say he's gwine to take de place ob de head man, if all de folks votes for him.—Aberdeen (Miss.) Examiner.

A freedman, on returning home from the election last week, was asked what he did. He replied that he did not know more than a child. "Well," inquired his interrogator, "how do you know whether you voted right or wrong?" "Oh, I knows I voted right, 'case I had the right ticket, so no other could be put in—for I seed it tried. The wrong ticket couldn't go in."—LaGrange (Ga.) Reporter.

THE COURTS.

CHANCERY COURT.—Wm. M. Smith, Chancellor.—The causes set for hearing to-day, on pleas, demurrers, etc., are:
Orgill Bros. vs Treat.
Wyatt vs Hart et al.
Swift vs Holmes.
Randle vs Waggener.
Shelton vs Parham.
Walt vs Thomasson.

MUNICIPAL COURT.—Geo. W. Waldran, Judge.—The case set for trial to-day is as follows:
E. Taylor vs Mrs. F. Baxter.
This case was commenced on Saturday and will be concluded to-day. It is a replevin suit for one sow and several pigs, valued at $30. The identity of the animals seems to be the question at issue. The witnesses examined have identified the animals for each party.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge. The Avalanche contempt case stands continued until Monday, January 28, 1868. Judge Hunter ordered a rule to be entered and served upon J. M. Campbell and S. B. Beaumont, to show cause why an attachment should not issue against them for contempt of Court, in uttering, writing and publishing an article in the Avalanche, December 10, 1867. Attachments were also ordered to be issued, in two cases, against E. Whitmore and F. A. Tyler, publishers of the Evening Ledger, for contempt of Court, in uttering, writing and publishing an article some days since, in said paper. It is whispered in the neighborhood of the Courthouse that a like attachment will probably be issued against a well known Justice of the Peace, for the publication of a card in the Avalanche not long since. The trial docket was called through, and forfeitures in fifty cases taken against those out on bonds, who have failed to appear and renew the same.

LAW COURT—James O. Pierce, Judge. The following cases will be called up to-day for trial:
759 Johnson vs Wicks et al.
760 Same vs Bank of Memphis.
761 Lacy & McGehee vs Stewart.
762 Glenn vs Herring.
763 McKinney & Co. vs Filkins.

MORE SHOOTING.

A Father-in-Law Shot by his Son-in-Law—Justifiable Homicide.

On Tuesday last, at Huntersville, Madison county, a difficulty occurred between Mr. Daniel Buntin and his father-in-law, Mr. D. J. Britton, which resulted in the latter being shot and killed under the following circumstances: They worked a blacksmith shop in partnership, and disputed as to the settlement of certain accounts. Britton went to Buntin's house and demanded a settlement, to which the latter assented, but wished the division to take place at the house of a friend. Britton demanded on the spot, in default of which he swore he would kill Buntin, and picking up an ax aimed a blow at him, which he eluded, and with the aid of his wife and a negro wrested the ax from his assailant. He then ran into a room and bolted the door. His adversary got hold of the ax again and pursued Buntin into the room by another door, when the latter seized a gun, ran and concealed himself behind an outhouse. Britton, blind with fury, pursued and raised his weapon to strike, when the son-in-law, to save his own life, let him have the contents of his gun in the head, proving instantly fatal. Buntin surrendered himself, but was released on bail for his appearance at court.

MEETING AT GRAND JUNCTION.

Congress Asked for Aid.

GRAND JUNCTION, TENN., Saturday, January 11, 1868.

There was a large and respectable meeting of the citizens of this place and other portions of Hardeman county, held here to-day, for the purpose of memorializing the Congress of the United States, through the Legislature of our State, to solicit their aid in behalf of the much-depressed people of our country. Parson N. A. D. Bryant being called to the chair explained the object of the meeting, and in a pathetic speech portrayed the lamentable condition of affairs now existing among us.

Messrs. Harry Hill, F. S. Pledge, G. A. Woodson and others, took active parts in the meeting, and showed their heartfelt sympathy for the suffering thousands in long and able speeches. The following gentlemen, Messrs. W. H. Tod, Dr. N. H. Pruitt, Guy Smith, N. A. D. Bryant and P. B. Faison, were appointed a committee to draft resolutions and report at a subsequent meeting, to be held on Thursday, the 16th inst. There being no other business the meeting adjourned.
N. A. D. BRYANT, Chair'n.
P. B. FAISON, Sec'y.

COMMERCIAL BANK.—We understand that Mr. J. A. Omberg, assistant cashier of the Commercial Bank, has been appointed receiver. If such is the case, we think it a judicious appointment. From his long connection with the bank he must be familiar with its affairs, and is competent to settle everything satisfactorily to all interested.

OFFICE DESOTO INSURANCE AND TRUST CO., MEMPHIS, January 13, 1868.
At an election held this day for Directors of the Company, the following gentlemen were unanimously elected: W. M. Farrington, C. B. Church, W. B. Greenlaw, W. B. Galbreath, C. W. Goyer, J. J. Rawlings, John Johnson.
J. G. LONSDALE, Secretary.

[COMMUNICATED.]

ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS REWARD. Messrs. J. M. Bradstreet & Son having been publicly convicted in June last of pirating names and ratings from our reference book, seek now to justify that act by alleging that some of our branch offices have been guilty of a similar offence in purloining from their book. We understand a circular is being privately exhibited by Messrs. Bradstreet's agents which contain affidavits to this effect. But its circulation is so guarded that notwithstanding every effort on our part we have been unable to obtain a copy. We have concluded, therefore, to offer the above reward to the party who first delivers to us here a printed copy of the said circular, in order that we may meet an attack at once so unmanly and so untrue. In the meantime the public will understand what significance is to be attached to a document circulated in a manner so mean and so contemptible, that the parties whose reputation it is sought to injure, find it necessary to take such steps as the above to secure a copy.

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

A snow fell before daylight on Sunday morning which covered the ground merely. The day was damp and unpleasant. Yesterday was an indescribable day. "First it snew, then it blew, then it 'gan to friz." It hailed, also, and it rained—in fact, we had specimens of every kind of weather during the day. The rain turned into sleet after falling, and horses, mules, as well as pedestrians, had a hard time in keeping perpendicular. St. Francis river has three feet to Madison and two and a half feet to Wittsburg and falling at the upper end, but rising below from back water. We have no change to report in the Arkansas. White river has three feet to Jacksonport and falling. The Mississippi at this point is rising steadily. The stage of the Ohio will be found in our telegraphic columns. The Mississippi at St. Louis is in bad condition. The ice is very heavy and no boats are in port. A gorge has formed twelve miles above Cairo, and from there nearly to the mouth of the Ohio the river is frozen over. The Cumberland is falling.

MISCELLANEOUS.

The Cora S. is on her way to this port from Louisville.

The Argosy will be here to-night from below on her way to Cincinnati.

The coal in tow of the Alps, which is reported sunk at Brunot's, below Pittsburg, was on its way to this city, and belonged to our enterprising friends Bigley, Mellersh & Co.

The Norman, which was sunk in White river below Jacksonport, passed up yesterday for Louisville. The obstruction tore a hole in her larboard side about five feet long and two feet wide. She was on her way back from Jacksonport when the accident happened, and only had on board seven bales of cotton. Protest was entered here.

Capt. Lew. Shallcross, agent of the Louisville Underwriters, was in town yesterday.

Capt. Enoch Taylor arrived at home on Sunday evening from Cincinnati. He thinks the mail packet United States, which brought him to Louisville in six hours, some on the run, and only equalled by the Great Western Dispatch.

The Nick Longworth should be in port to-day from above, but her agents have not been advised as yet of her movements.

The handsome little packet Eau Claire, Captain Russell, came in yesterday from the St. Francis, and was the first boat to reach Pittsburg this season. She leaves for that port to-day at 5 p.m. Mr. Willbanks is clerk.

The Olive Branch could see no prospect for a trip, and proceeded to Cairo, where she will lay up for a few days. Capt. Jones reports very dull times below—no cotton—no people—no money. He will return again with his packet when times are better, which we hope may be soon.

The Guidon, Capt. Tom. Berry, leaves to-day for the Arkansas. She carries the U. S. mail and will make all way landings.

The U. S. mail packet Commercial leaves to-day in charge of Capt. Billy Ashford, for all points on White river. She connects at DeVall's Bluff with the Little Rock train. Kidder, Smithers and Robinson are clerks.

The fine and commodious steamer B. L. Hodge, Capt. Montgomery, leaves to-day for the Crescent City. She has nearly a full cargo engaged. The Hodge is one of the best boats in the trade and her clerks, Messrs. Johnson and Green, will be found agreeable gentlemen.

The Mollie Hambleton, Capt. Tom. Bowman, is the regular St. Francis river packet for this evening. She leaves at 5 p.m. Messrs. Paine, Clark and Shell are clerks.

The steamer Taconey, which left St. Louis for Cairo, succeeded in getting through, but had a hard time of it. The ice cut her hull so badly that she had to go on the docks at Cairo. She transferred her freight to the Laurel Hill, which is past due here.

The handsome steamer Silver Moon, of which Capt. Ben Merrieless is master, did not get her cotton on board last evening, owing to the rain and sleet. She will positively back out to-day, however, for Cairo and Cincinnati, and will have a fine trip. Mr. J. L. Carter is her chief Secretary.

The splendid passenger packet St. Patrick came in last night with a good trip. She leaves to day, positively, at 4 p.m. for Cairo and Evansville. Capt. J. Lee Finney has already built up a reputation for her in the trade, second only to that enjoyed by her great namesake in the "Gem of the Sea." The immortal Billy Fields wields the pen and passes out the keys. Travelers and shippers should not forget the wild Corkonian.

A barge containing 5000 bushels of coal, which was mined near the Blue Lick Springs on the north fork of Licking river, in Kentucky, reached Covington on Saturday, being the first coal that ever came down the Licking. Several other barges are reported on their way to Covington and Cincinnati from the same mine.

The Gallipolis Bulletin says of the explosion of the Harry Dean: "It appears that it was known to the officers of the boat that the boilers were in bad condition, and we are informed that the fireman, Haines, on Saturday morning, said to one of them: 'I cannot make steam on this boat,' and upon the officer asking the reason, Haines said: 'She is burnt under there, (pointing under the boilers,) and I wouldn't be surprised to see her let go at any time.' Such being the fact, who is to blame for this terrible calamity? Upon whose shoulders should rest the responsibility for the loss of life occasioned by this explosion? There can be but one answer; With the captain and engineer of the Harry Dean rests the crime and they should be made to answer fully. That the state of the boilers was known to them is true, or we must give them credit for gross ignorance of their duties as steamboatmen. Their duty was plain, but they failed to perform it. In less time than an hour after the explosion, and while the groans of the dying were yet in their ears, and the flames were devouring the boat and the bodies yet on it, these men, together with most of the officers of the boat, got on board the Edinburgh and left the scene of disaster."

The Sam Hale, on her way to Cincinnati, picked up a snag, which punched a hole in one of her chimneys, broke her guys and knocked twenty-five bales of cotton overboard.

Capt. Rea, of Terre Haute, Ind., has purchased the wreck of the Zanesville, as it lies sunk at Wheeling, for $1000. Capt. Rea designs to have her overhauled, and take her to the Green river trade.

A sternwheel boat was launched on Wednesday at the marine ways at Madison, L. H. Vance, Superintendent, one hundred feet long, twenty-two feet beam and three feet depth of hold, which draws two and a half inches in the deepest place, while her stern pits do not touch the water by three inches.

The Darling follows the Minneola from Cincinnati to this port. The Minneola left on Saturday. The Great Republic leaves there to-day for New Orleans.

Wm. Long, a steamboat mate, died in St. Louis on Thursday last.

Capt. Overton is wrecking the Nora and Mariner in the Missouri river, near Omaha.

The steamer Lilly, loaded with cotton and bound from Tuscaloosa to Mobile, struck a snag and sunk in the Tombigbee river on Thursday last. Her cargo will be saved in a damaged condition, but the boat will prove a total loss.

The following correspondence was delayed or would have appeared before:

IN WHITE RIVER, ON BOARD STEAMER LIBERTY NO. 2, Dec. 30, 1867.
Editor Memphis Appeal:
Are you aware, my boy, that this is a bully boat. Well it is; you bet it is. The passengers on board, mostly residents of this country, are in perfect ecstacies over the craft. So large, roomy and pleasant. One can shift his tobacco from right to left without going on the hurricane deck. To stand in front she looks like a palace. The shining chandeliers, and the beautiful carvings overhead, and the painted doors and bulkheads, render it perfectly palatial. She is a beauty, and one and all give praise to Captain John B. Davis in the selection of her for this trade. Certainly Capt. Davis is one of the most enterprising and energetic steamboatmen in the Mississippi valley. Two years ago he started in with one boat; to-day he has two regular boats plying semi-weekly in our river, with a good prospect for a regular tri-weekly line, as he is now having a new boat built at Louisville. He is a gentleman in every sense of the term, and his agreeable manners have so endeared him to our community that they never can be eradicated. His officers are all clever gentlemen. Foremost among them, we greet the hospitable Capt. E. C. Morton, chief clerk. It is really a treat to meet this gentleman, as he has a happy way of making you feel perfectly at home in hi[illegible] and the beam of his benevolent eye indicates that it comes from the depths of the heart. May his days be many, and his life one of happiness. Next comes the whole-souled, little gentleman, Mr. Milt R. Harry, second clerk. Milton is similarly constituted. A pleasant, affable spirit seems to hold sway at all times in his corporeal system, except when that dear appellation "Josie" is mentioned. Then it is that he becomes thoughtful, for she is gone—to school! Never mind, Milt, she'll be back again; and we know she loves ——. Can't say it, for fear you'll blush.

The third clerk is Mr. Charley Sharp, possessed of excellent business qualifications, that wins him friends at all times. He is a genuine Kentuckian, full of humor and good cheer. There is also another clever young gentleman in and about the office—it is Mr. H. O. Williams. Mr. W. is not only a courteous officer but a good one, and possessed of an accommodating disposition, which is appreciated by all who come in contact with him.

We are having a regular wintry day. Snow is about two inches deep on deck, and the shore is covered to the same depth, and still falling. At this rate we may indulge in a sleigh ride soon. It is as cold almost as in Kamskatski.

White river is rising a little; there are six feet on the shallowest places, and as it has been raining pretty freely above, another rise may be looked for.

Cotton is scattered all along the banks. In some instances we see it still unpicked in the field.

In this latitude we say God speed the Liberty and Commercial, and we want you all over your way to do likewise. Adieu, till reconstructed. PEGGY.

Our Latest Improved
NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.
GROVESTEEN & CO.,
499 Broadway, N. Y.,
THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANOFORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.
It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.
The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.
They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. se5 d&wly

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S
BILLIARD TABLES
THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the Cat-Gut Cushion,
Manufactured by KAVANAGH & DECKER, and patented December 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 16, No. 11.)
It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable Cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, as is abundantly proven by the great demand for it since its introduction. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the tightened cord of cat-gut which overlies the face and edge of the rubber and running the full length of the cushion, which prevents the ball from bedding into the rubber and jumping from the tables. The addition of the cat-gut cord also adds much to the elasticity of the Cushion.
The Cat-Gut Cushion has already been applied to over 1000 tables, which are in constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make, for $75 per set.
Cavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of its kind in the world. The machinery is of the most improved character, the lumber drying room the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.
Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.
Kavanagh & Decker are the only agents in this country for Kay's Cue Cement, adjudged by competent authorities to be the best Cement ever used.
Full size Tables cut down for $100.

Trustee's Sale.

AT the request of Orrin White, the cestui que trust in a trust deed made to me as trustee by William B. Smallwood on the 4th of December, 1866, and recorded in the Register's office of Shelby county, in book No. 58, part 2, pages 369, 370, 371 and 372, for the purpose of securing the payment of certain notes therein specified to said White, and the interest on the same, the interest due December 4, 1867, not having been paid, I shall,

On the 22d Day of January, 1868, proceed to sell, at public auction, at the front door of the Law Courtroom, on Second street, in Memphis, at 10 o'clock a.m., to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described property, to-wit: One acre of land in lot six, being a belt the full length of the said lot six, between parallel lines, and bounded on the south by the division line between said lot six and [illegible] Farmville, and south of the Raleigh plank-road and fronting on [illegible] I sell only as trustee. FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, January 13, 1868.

We regret to record the suspension of the Commercial Bank of this city. It did not open its doors to-day. A card from the President, Mr. Jesse Page, jr., will be found in another column. The mind of the public was somewhat prepared for an occurrence of this kind by an article in our columns on Sunday, and the excitement and distrust which otherwise would have pervaded this community was thereby allayed. The Commercial Bank is one of our oldest banking institutions, and has heretofore stood very high in the opinion of our business men. We learn that some indications of a run upon other banks was apparent early in the day, but the promptness they displayed in cashing all checks presented soon allayed all uneasiness, and in a very few hours the minds of depositors were entirely at ease upon the subject.

Gold opened in New York to-day at 138⅞c. and closed at 140c. Since the advance there has been very little offered in this market—in fact it is about exhausted and no advance could bring out a large amount. Brokers keep up a large margin. They buy at 37@37½c. There is no counter demand.

Currency remains close but there is enough on hand to meet all choice sight bills. Cotton bills are plentiful and taken at ⅛@¼c. off on New York and other Eastern cities as well as New Orleans. Selling at par on all points except the latter, upon which our banks check at a premium of $2 per $1000.

City Scrip is irregular but firm. There is none offering from first hands, and brokers have no regular offering rates. A lot of several thousand dollars was offered by a broker at 50c; but small lots can't be had at that figure.

County Warrants are in fair demand at 65c buying, selling at 68@70c.

Police Scrip is dull at 80c buying, selling at 85c.

The Liverpool cotton market was active at the opening to-day and prices advanced—Uplands, 7⅞d; Orleans, 7⅞d. At noon that market was still active and had again advanced ⅛d—Uplands, 7⅞@8d; Orleans, 8d. Sales 20,000 bales. The New York market opened quiet but steady, with quotations nominally unchanged. At noon it was quiet but firm—Middlings, 16½@16¾c; at 2 p.m. holders were asking an advance but buyers were operating with caution—Middlings, 16¾@17c; Orleans, 17¼c. At the close the demand was moderate and prices firm at previous quotations. Sales, 2000 bales. Sales here were limited by the light offerings. The inquiry was active and came from both Liverpool and Northern buyers. Fine cottons are very scarce, and in most cases holders are keeping them off the market. Clean stained cottons were also in good demand. The market closed firm and tending upwards. We quote:

Stained	12½@13½
Ordinary	12½@13
Good Ordinary	14 @14½
Low Middling	15 @—
Middling	15½@16
Strict Middling	...
Good Middling	nominal

JOHN S. TOOF, of Toof, Phillips & Co.;
W. L. STEWART, late of W. L. Stewart Bros.;
ROBERTS SAUNDERS, U. S. Collector;
R. R. PITTMAN, of R. R. Pittman & Co.;
GEO. H. LEGUERE, of Ward & Leguere.

N. CORONNA....Treasurer.
DEPOSITORY....German National Bank
F. Y. ROCKETT....Financial Secretary.

$34,500 IN PREMIUMS.
NUMBER of PRIZES, 25.
CERTIFICATES, $5 EACH.
A Fortune or a Homestead for $5.
CAPITAL PRIZE VALUED AT $20,000 00.

Which amount has recently been offered for the Springs and Grounds immediately surrounding.

PRIZE NO. 1.

The celebrated Raleigh Mineral Springs, situated on the confines of Raleigh, late County Seat of Shelby county, Tenn., nine miles northeast of Memphis, and two miles from Wells' Station, on the Memphis and Louisville Railroad. These Springs are six and number, of various mineral and medicinal qualities, and are visited every Summer by thousands of seekers of health and pleasure, from all quarters of the country. They are within a few steps of the village of Raleigh, in a beautiful valley, and within a few hundred feet of Wolf river, which winds around the base of the eminence on which the village of Raleigh is situated, and empties into the "Father of Waters" at Memphis. Numerous remarkable cures of various diseases have been experienced by sojourners at this health-inspiring retreat, and the present proprietor, Col. J. M. Coleman, can produce hundreds of certificates of cures in cases which had been entirely given over by medical skill. The ground surrounding the Springs, and in fact the entire village of Raleigh, rises to an eminence of pure air, and is as remarkable for its healthfulness as beauty of location. The Springs are in fine order, never failing, and are designated as follows:

MARBLE SPRING,
BOX SPRING,
MAGNOLIA SPRING,
ARSENIC SPRING,
SULPHUR SPRING,
FREESTONE SPRING.

The place has never been visited by epidemic of any kind, and peculiarly characteristic of its healthfulness is the longevity of the inhabitants. The oldest citizens of Shelby county are residents of Raleigh.

The Springs are as much resorted to by pleasure seekers as by invalids, owing to beauty of scenery and various artificial as well as natural attractions. Connected with the Springs are a Pavilion, Ladies' Bowling Alley, Rustic Arbors, Reading Saloon, Gents' Bowling Alley, Saloon, Billiard Room, Gymnasium, Refreshment Tables, etc., while Wolf river affords excellent Boating and Fishing.

The ground accompanying the Springs, in the above scheme and included in the First Prize, is fifteen acres in extent, overlooking the valley and affords in addition to a magnificent site for a grand hotel and other buildings; splendid facilities for a park, promenades, etc.

An analysis of the several Springs, by distinguished medical men, shows that they are unsurpassed in mineral and curative properties by any in the United States. There is no reason then why Raleigh should not become as famous as Saratoga, Sharon or Lebanon, and as largely patronized. It needs only capital and enterprise to accomplish this end.

A charter is before the State Legislature for the incorporation of the Springs, and a movement has been inaugurated looking to direct rail communication with Memphis.

For this prize, $20,000 was recently offered, which was declined in order that the above scheme may be fully carried out.

PRIZE NO. 2.

The elegant country mansion house and lot, residence of Col. J. M. Coleman is within a few yards of the Springs. The house is in first class order, contains 10 rooms and is beautifully embowered in shrubbery. The lot is well fenced and ornamented with fine shade and fruit trees, and affords all necessary outhouses, cisterns, etc. It is midway between the village and Spring Valley, on the main promenade. Value $8000.

PRIZE NO. 3.

One thousand dollars in cash.

PRIZE NO. 4 TO 25.

Twenty-two cottage lots valued at $250 each. These lots are a portion of the village of Raleigh, delightfully situated, all fronting on thoroughfares and will be drawn with the understanding that the winners shall have free access at all times to the Springs and belongings.

Details of the Drawing.

Six thousand and seven hundred tickets, representing the certificates issued, will be placed in one wheel, and the same number of blanks, including twenty five inscribed with the names of the premiums, will be placed in another. From these wheels tickets will be drawn at the same time, and the number drawn will take the premium drawn simultaneously.

All moneys received upon the sale of these shares will be placed in the German National Bank of Memphis, and will remain there to the credit of the Association until the drawing takes place.

Shelton, will please take notice that an attachment was issued against his estate for the sum sixty 50-100 dollars debt due on acc't on file in this court upon the grounds that the said defendant is a non-resident of the State of Tennessee. It is therefore ordered, that the defendant enter his appearance on or before the 18th day of June, A. D. 1868, to plead, answer or demur to the said plaintiff's complaint or the same will be taken for confessed, and the case will be set for hearing exparte, and that a copy of this order be published once a week, for four consecutive weeks, in the Memphis APPEAL.

UNREQUITED.

The glowing, dusky day had slowly burned
To bluish flame, and 'gainst a sky of pearl
The distant mountains shone
Like azure-flakes, zone upon zone;
While one whose heart 'neath love's sweet curse had yearned
For his return, until the brain's mad whirl,
And fever-fire running through all her veins,
Wrung out an anguished cry—
Her sad eyes, now like low, large moons at night,
Of azure flame, instead of golden light,
Withdrawing their sweet gaze
So languidly, as in a languid dream;—

"Yes, I will die—will die
Rather for Love, than live its crownless queen:
He will not come again—
His bosom hath no pain;
There are so many stars he cannot see
The violet—he will not look on me
With his great soul that folded lies,
Leaf upon leaf, with love's sweet breath between;
For he has gone, and while my heart slow dies,
He will not know the martyr is at rest;
Perhaps he'll rise to love's sublimity
Without its sorrow brave.

So on my cheeks cool water-lilies lay,
And coil their stems with long-leaved flowers
sweet
Around my brow and feet;
And lay me in my boat of long, green, dewy
leaves,
That I may glide on waters dark and cool,
While night her silence weaves
And slakes my fevered veins with her sweet dews;
And give me music low and sweet
As sighs of pleasant waters when they meet
Their love-flush'd roses, crowned with starlight mists.
Then freeze the moonlight for my wine
To drink from snowy lily-bells;
And let me glide away, so far away,
To meet Death on the wave;
His calm, cold touch will ease the burning heart,—
His soft, slow step will not awaken me,
And none will weep over this mystery.

BLUSHING TRESSES.

A SONNET.

Amy hath blushing tresses
Melting away in the glare
Of the sun-god's warm caresses
To wine-colored wavelets rare,
Whose ripple and glow enchant ye;
Radiant, wonderful hair!
Reticent, staid Bacchante—
Paradox! Queen of the Vine!
No inspiration of Samian sage
Could challenge the grace of mine
Had I but the royal wavelet kiss
As worshipful wooing the golden mist
That circles that hair of thine.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NEW YORK, January 13.—A special to the Herald reports that the President has directed Gen. Meade to suspend his order removing Gov. Jenkins. The removal caused intense excitement among citizens of Atlanta.

The Times' Atlanta special states that Gen. Meade has removed Gov. Jenkins, and appointed Gen. Rogers, at present commandant, in his place, and not Gen. Dunn, as reported. Gen. Meade also removed State Treasurer Jones and put Capt. Rockwell, of the ordnance corps, in his place.

There is reason to believe that Mr. Ashburn will to-morrow withdraw his resolution petitioning Congress to remove the present officers or give the Convention the power to do so, with the authority to fill the vacancies created thereby.

The Times' Washington special says Gen. Meade telegraphed to Gen. Grant for instructions relative to the removal of the State Treasurer of Georgia, in case the latter should resist the execution of any order directing the members of the Convention to be paid out of the State Treasury. Gen. Grant instructed Gen. Meade to remove the Treasurer at once, if he makes any resistance to orders.

The Herald's special from Santiago, 5th inst., says: Taxes here are insupportable. House owners are abandoning their estates, and small farmers are giving up cultivation. The government educational establishments are closing up, the professors refusing to continue without the payment of their salaries. Most of the officers in the custom house have been removed. The city government is $40,000 in arrears to the gas company for lighting the streets. The police are ineffective, and the frequency of burglaries and robberies is unparaleled.

A special to the Times says Stanton will probably be reinstated by Congress to-day.

The bill requiring two-thirds of the Supreme Court to concur in any decision on any constitutional question will be pushed through, although it is reported that the opposition will fillibuster against it.

The Herald's Washington special says that Alex. H. Stephens takes a very desponding view of affairs in the South. He says he sees nothing in the future but gloom and desolation as the result of the reconstruction policy. He thinks it will be the destruction of either the black or white race.

The Tribune's Washington special says S. S. Cox's name will be sent to the Senate to-day for the Austrian Mission, and ex-Gov. Ford's as Minister to Ecuador. Several friends of Mayor Hoffman are pressing him for the Austrian Mission.

HAVANA, January 9.—It is rumored that levies have been made for the army to prevent the rising of the negroes, which was expected on Christmas, but failed in consequence of the timely measures taken by the Government. Another attempt at rising is apprehended here to-day, which is one of the African holidays. The Captain-General has issued an order postponing the festival until the epidemic, now so fatal to the Africans, ceases, when a Te Deum will be given at the churches.

A telegram from Madrid announces that the contract for the Cuban mail service has been provisionally awarded to Lopez.

TO CONSUMPTIVES.

It is authentically stated that one-fifth of the inhabitants of this country and Europe die of Consumption. No disease has been more thoroughly studied, and its nature less understood; there is no disease upon which exists a greater diversity of opinion, and no disease which has more completely baffled all medical skill and remedial agencies.

Some of the prominent symptoms are Cough, Expectoration, Shortness of Breath, Irritation about the Lungs and Chest, darting Pains in the Sides and Back Emaciation, and general negative condition of the whole system.

Persons suffering with this dread disease, or any of its concomitants, should lose no time in possessing themselves of the proper Remedy in order that they may stay its ravages, and be restored to health. The

Rev. A. E. Wilson's

Prepared Prescription for the Cure of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis,
COUGHS, COLDS,
And all Throat and Lung Affections.

By the use of which he was restored to health in a few weeks, after having suffered several years with a severe lung affection and that dread disease, Consumption, has now been in use over ten years with the most marked success.

This remedy is prepared from the original Recipe, chemically pure, by the Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON, 165 South Second street, Williamsburgh, Kings county, New York.

A pamphlet containing the original prescription with full and explicit directions for preparation and use, together with a short history of his case, with symptoms, experience and cure, can be obtained (free of charge) of Mr Wilson, as above, or by calling on or addressing

The Thirtieth Annual Course of Instruction in this institution will begin November 11th, and end in the following March. Preliminary lectures will be given daily in the Charity Hospital, commencing October 15th, at which time also the new and extensive rooms for Practical Anatomy will be opened. The facilities of this school, heretofore unsurpassed, have, by the liberality of the State Legislature, been greatly increased during the past season, so that now every Chair has attached to it a Practical Department, in which students are taught to observe for themselves the facts set forth in the lecture room.

Fees for all the Lectures, $140; Matriculation, (paid but once) $5; Practical Anatomy, $10. Payment required in advance. For further information address

Trustee's Sale.

BY virtue of a Deed in Trust executed to me, as Trustee, by Asa Hodges on the 28th day of February, 1866, and registered in the proper office in Crittenden county, in the State of Arkansas, in book K, pages 473, 474, 475 and 476, on the 8th day of March, 1866, I will, on Friday, the 7th Day of February, 1868,

In front of the Clerk's office, in the town of Marion, in said county of Crittenden, proceed to sell, at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash, a certain tract of land situate, lying and being in the county of Crittenden, State of Arkansas, known and described as the twelve hundred acres land purchased of Daniel Hughes and James Hughes, lying north of the Military road, bounded by John Ware and other lands on the west, and on the south by the Military road, and on the east by Warnell's land and Mr. Kelly's and part of the Gilbert tract of land, and on the north by Mr. Hines' lands, which tract of land embraces the dwelling of said Hodges. Said sale will be made to satisfy certain debts named and specified in said deed as due to A. W. Arnold. The title to the said land is believed to be good, but I shall sell and convey as trustee only.
